

Even though I don't subscribe to NETFLIX I got this...

It might look "official", but you know better, right? DON'T click on anything

NETFLIX

Dear Customer,

We have been making attempts to alert you to update your billing.

Click here to update your billing

We take every step needed to automatically validate our users, unfortunately in this case we were unable to verify your details. The process will allow us to maintain our high standard of account security.

Netflix Support Team

This message was mailed automatically by Netflix during routine security checks. We are not completely satisfied with your account information and require you to update your account to continue using our services uninterrupted.