

Carol, and probably many more, got this email....

Dear member:

We recently have determined that different computers have tried to log in to your account. Multiple password failures automatically places your account on hold.

We now need you to re-confirm your account information to us.

If this is not completed by July 8,2016, we will be forced to suspend your account indefinitely, as it may have been used for fraudulent purposes.

We thank you for your cooperation in this manner.

To remove limitations from your account click on the following link:

Thank you for being our customer.

By now, you all should know what it is and what it's trying to get you to do. Needless to say, click on nothing and delete....

Just another way the bad guys/gals are trying to separate you from your money.

Be careful out there...
