

In the event you get an email like the one below (I got it this morning), you know what to do (don't you?)... If not sure... IGNORE IT, DELETE IT. CLICK ON NOTHING, DOWNLOAD NOTHING!

WELLS FARGO BANK <wellsfargobank@wellsfargo.com>

Message body

This is to inform you that we have concluded plans to finally transfer your fund to you but we cannot make this transfer without hearing from you and confirming that you are ready to accept the fund. We are also aware of the issues you had with your attorney which has been resolved at the moment and we would advise you get back to this office immediately so that we can move ahead for the transfer. You are not expected to make anymore payment whatsoever on this transfer for any reason because as we speak the fund is ready to be transferred to any of your nominated Bank account or delivered to your doorstep as you wished.

There's lots more, but you get the gist....
